Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

13º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

The author of The Cloud of Unknowing prays, “That which I am and the way that I am, with all my gifts of nature and grace, you have given to me, O Lord, and you are all this. I offer it all to you, principally to praise you and to help my fellow Christians and myself.” Knowing that God sustains us in being is the key to faith. All that we need to do is to love God as God is and the rest will begin to fall into place. God made us in His image and desires that we have life. God also desires that we be healed of all of our wounds, especially those caused by sin, and know his loving touch. Being weighed down by negativity, imperfections, the cares of the world, and weakness is not something that God desires.

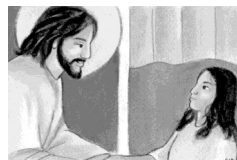

Faith can profoundly change how we see God, ourselves, and one another. It gives a clearer lens through which to see life and connects us with the powerful virtues of love and hope. Three friends journeying with us through all that we encounter, faith, hope, and love, help us experience God’s embrace and heal us. All we have to do is let God be who God is and not foolishly try to make Him into what we need or want Him to be. Without God we cease to be. It’s that simple. The very blood that flows through my veins and the life that I have come directly from Divine origins. With this knowledge of who God is and who I am, I can open my ears and hear the powerful words Jesus speaks, “Do not be afraid, just have faith.” Trust begins.

When we are struggling, we naturally reach out for God because we know that a divine remedy is the only remedy. But, in doing so we wrestle with letting God take charge. We want something more miraculous and visible than the obvious and have difficulty in finding consolation simply resting in God’s presence. Our naked being, stripped of any pretense or self-serving agenda, is being called to rest in and love the uncreated Presence of God. Reach out in love to God. Ask God to heal you from all that separates you from Him. Put aside any ideas of God that create barriers between you and God’s tender and endearing presence. The Cloud of Unknowing leaves us with wisdom, “think of yourself and of him in the same way, that is, with the simple awareness that he is as he is and that you are as you are.” This is a meeting of two friends who desire nothing more than to share life together.

Marcos, ahora, nos lleva paso a paso, a ver los milagros de Jesús. En este caso son dos, el de la mujer que sufría de hemorragias, y la resurrección de la hija de Jairo, jefe de la sinagoga y responsable de la comunidad judía. Hoy, el Evangelio nos narra un doble acto de fe. Jesús se fue de camino a la casa de Jairo y de repente entre el gentío que lo apretujaba sucedió lo siguiente: “Se encontraba allí una mujer que padecía un derrame de sangre desde hacía doce años... la mujer pensaba: “Si logro tocar, aunque solo sea su ropa, sanare. Al momento cesó su hemorragia y sintió en su cuerpo que estaba sana: (Marcos 5:24-28). Enseguida viene el dialogo de preguntas y respuestas entre Jesús, sus discípulos y la mujer que responde asustada. A lo que Jesús le dice. “Hija, tu fe te ha salvado; vete en paz y queda sana de tu enfermedad” (Marcos 5:34).

Este episodio entretuvo a Jesús para llegar rápido a la casa de Jairo. Llegaron algunos de la casa del oficial y le dan la mala noticia de que su hija ya había muerto. Jesús, se hace el desentendido, como que no se da cuenta. Jesús, se dirige a Jairo y le dice no tengas miedo. Solamente ten fe. ¡Que poca cosa nos pide Jesús! Solamente tener fe, fe como un granito de mostaza. Y sucede, el milagro de la resurrección de la niña. Talita kumi que quiere decir: ¡Nina, te digo, ¡levántate! “Vayamos hoy a casa con este icono del Evangelio de hoy: el jefe de la sinagoga que se arroja ante Jesús, sin miedo de avergonzarse y hacer reír a otros. En juego estaba la vida de su hija” Papa Francisco. (Homilía, Santa Marta 04 de febrero 2014). ©LPi

Jesus said to the synagogue official, “Do not be afraid; just have faith.” When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, “Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep.”

Mk 5:36 b c, 38-39

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Last Sunday's proclamation of the Gospel, the disciples were in the boat on a stormy sea. The storm gave way to calm recognition of God's mission of mercy and love as Jesus calms the sea. He knew their lack of faith.

This Sunday's selection from Gospel of Mark demonstrates how God can once again bring about calm, restoration and healing. Jesus brings us life. The synagogue official comes forward to plead with Jesus because his daughter is at the point of death when he hears that she has died, Jesus tells him do not be afraid just have faith. Taking the child by her hand, Jesus said to her little girl, I say to you arise.

Another example is the afflicted woman in the crowd of people who manages to reach out to Jesus for healing. She touches his cloak, Jesus said to her "your faith has saved you, go in peace, be cured of your affliction.

Those who are confronted by sadness, fear, illness or death humbly find their place before the Lord with faith.

At Mass, we received the Word of God and are nourished by the Lord's real presence in the Eucharist. We find our strength to go forth on our mission sharing the joy of the good news with others.

Let us be encouraged as we find our place within the mission sharing the joy of the good news with others.

Let us be encouraged as we find our place within the mission of Renew My Church. The unification of our parishes, the work of evangelization calls us to make missionary disciples of Christ, build communities and inspire witness.

As I move on, I am hopeful and joyful in meeting you along the way.

Thank you for your welcome to this wonderful community of faith. It has been an honor to serve as your pastor these two years. I am very humbled by your devotion, faithfulness and your love for the Risen Christ.

As we continue to follow the Lord in a new way, may we find comfort in his presence and be strengthened by his merciful love.

May the Blessed Mother of God, Mary pray for us on our journey as we pray for each other.

En la proclamación del Evangelio del domingo pasado, los discípulos estaban en la barca en un mar tempestuoso. La tormenta dio paso al reconocimiento sereno de la misión de misericordia y amor de Dios mientras Jesús calma el mar. Él conocía su falta de fe.

La selección de este domingo del Evangelio de Marcos demuestra cómo Dios una vez más puede traer calma, restauración y curación. Jesús nos da vida. El oficial de la sinagoga se adelanta para suplicarle a Jesús porque su hija está al borde de la muerte. Cuando se entera de que ha muerto, Jesús le dice que no tenga miedo, solo tenga fe. Tomando a la niña de la mano, Jesús le dijo a su niña: Te digo, levántate..

Otro ejemplo es la mujer afligida entre la multitud que logra acercarse a Jesús para recibir curación. Toca su manto, Jesús le dice "tu fe te ha salvado, vete en paz, queda curada de tu aflicción.

Aquellos que se enfrentan a la tristeza, el miedo, la enfermedad o la muerte encuentran humildemente su lugar ante el Señor con fe.

En la Misa recibimos la Palabra de Dios y nos alimenta la presencia real del Señor en la Eucaristía.

Encontramos nuestra fuerza para seguir adelante en nuestra misión compartiendo el gozo de las buenas nuevas con los demás.

Animémonos a encontrar nuestro lugar dentro de la misión de Renovar Mi Iglesia. La unificación de nuestras parroquias, el trabajo de evangelización nos llama a hacer Misioneros Discípulos de Cristo, construir comunidades e inspirar testimonio.

A medida que avanzo, tengo la esperanza y la alegría de encontrarme con ustedes en el camino. Gracias por su bienvenida a esta maravillosa comunidad de fe. Ha sido un honor servir como su pastor estos dos años. Me siento muy humilde por su devoción, fidelidad y su amor por Cristo Resucitado.

A medida que continuamos siguiendo al Señor de una manera nueva, que encontremos consuelo en su presencia y seamos fortalecidos por su amor misericordioso.

Que la Santísima Madre de Dios, María ore por nosotros en nuestro viaje mientras oramos unos por otros.

P. Tom Baldonieri
